9. “Chloe Chiasson: Fast Hearts and Slow Towns” at Albertz Benda, New York

This is the first New York solo show for Brooklyn-based Chloe Chiasson, whose mixed-media paintings highlight queer life and visibility by focusing on a range of domestic and social settings. Her process is notable for its combination of painting and carpentry, as well as mixing imagery from different time periods. Chiasson received her BS from the University of Texas at Austin before moving to New York and earning an MFA at the New York Academy of Art. She has been part of international exhibitions in the UK, Germany, and Hong Kong.

Location: Albertz Benda, 515 West 26th Street, New York

Price: Free

Time: Opening reception 6-8 p.m.; Tuesday–Saturday, 11 a.m.–6 p.m.
