AND THOSE WHO WERE SEEN DANCING...

JULY 24, 2013 BY JENNIFER HERNANDEZ

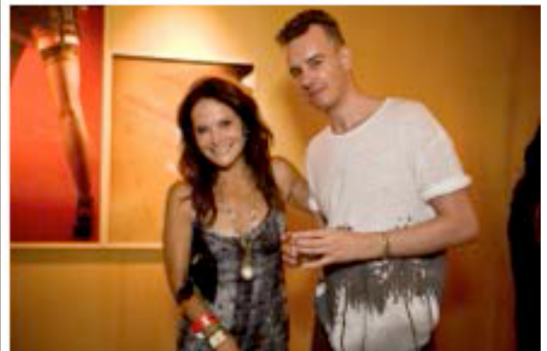

On July 16, art world revelers came out for a gallery opening celebrating nightlife culture at Friedman Benda. The exhibition And those who were seen dancing were thought to be insane by those who could not hear the music opened with a scene familiar to most: doorman with clipboard, wrist stamps, ID check and bands for the after party. The group show featured artists who have been inspired by, or are agents of, nightlife culture from the 1970s to now, including Bill Beckley, Cecily Brown, Nan Goldin, Andreas Gursky, David LaChapelle, Nicolas Provost, Dash Snow, Florian Sussmayr, Wolfgang Tillmans and Andy Warhol, with new special commissions by Rosson Crow, Natalie Frank, Agathe Snow and Ena Swansea.
