THURSDAY, JANUARY 10

Opening: Thomas Fougéirol and Carrie Yamaoka at Albertz Benda

This two-person outing, “A Crack in Everything,” takes its name from a Leonard Cohen song and features work probing the relationship between photography and painting. Thomas Fougéirol works using oil on canvas, but he has said that his abstractions offer “a space that exists between radiography, photo negatives, painting, and imprinting.” Carrie Yamaoka’s work aims to reflect back viewers or her studio space, and meditates on representation itself. Alongside the two artists’ work will be a 1912 photogram by Géro Bonnet.

Albertz Benda, 515 West 26th Street, 6–8 p.m.
